Women Empowerment

This shall be achieved by seeking employment for women and promoting their skills in handicraft etc. The awareness regarding their legal and widows, unmarried mothers and their dependent children, and prostitutes through residential care and vocational training is the primary aim of the organization.

Kavya Goshthi 15'- Umang Kiran, in association with Nidaan Samaj Kalyan Sanstha and Mission India organized a poetic forum for encouraging the poetic capabilities in women. The event, which was held at Gandhi Peace Foundation aimed at providing a stage to young poetesses, so that they could enhance their creative potential. Further, the aim of bringing their creations into the mainstream for wider reach and appreciation could also be achieved.

Apart from providing the women with self-confidence and a new hope, the event also promoted poetry as a literary art form. Thus, the dual purpose of women empowerment and promotion of art forms was served.

Women were also made aware about the significance of education along with that of literature and art. Over 23 women participations were also facilitated with framed certificates by the chief guests. The chief guests and speakers for the event were socialists,
